

WILL YOU NEED A LIFELINE ?

A “Just for Fun” quiz

By Jim and Barbara German

The questions in this intellectual inventory are based on the current Roundalab standards. We present for your interest six levels of challenge, the last set probably not any harder than the first set. There are multiple answers to some of the questions. The answers appear on page 3 and you might even be able to come up with more answers than we have listed. Have fun be kind to your lifeline and do not call after 9 p.m.

YOUR FIRST CHALLENGE (should you choose to accept it)

Name the figure associated with the following key words:

- A cutting device
- A salty snack
- A key
- Something to sit on
- A cooling device
- A Florida city
- The Netherlands
- A nickname for a helicopter
- A noisy bird
- A hard rock
- A tool
- A rooster

READY FOR THE NEXT CHALLENGE?

- What figure(s) ends facing the opposite direction of it’s name?
- What Rhythm(s) include the figure “Reverse Turn” ?
- What one feather figure is found in the waltz syllabus?
- What is the lady’s head position at the end of a wing or cross pivot?

FOR THE THIRD CHALLENGE ALL THE QUESTIONS HAVE THE WORD “THREE” IN THE ANSWER.

- What figure(s) with the word “three” in the name actually takes one (1) measure to complete?
- What figure(s) with the word “three” in the name actually takes three (3) measures to complete?
- What figure(s) with the word “three” in the name actually takes four (4) measures to complete?

THE CHALLENGE OF TIMING.

- What rhythm has three equal notes and 2 quicker notes all in one measure?
- What is the timing of Jive Walks?
- In Jive, does the rock step occur at the beginning or the end of a figure?
- What cha cha figure takes five measures?

What does the word “quick” in a figure imply?

- *An extra weight change
- *A syncopation in the figure
- *If the first step of a figure is normally taken as a slow, it will be taken as a quick.
- * All of the above
- * None of the above

Are you ready for a lifeline yet?

NAME THE FIGURE CHALLENGE

What figure has the name of something a couple might do on a couch?

What figure has the name of something found at the football game?

What figure might leave you feeling itchy?

What figure(s) has a name that a cowboy would recognize?

What figure has the name of something found in the kitchen sink?

What figure(s) will get you your twenty-five cents worth?

What figure(s) name is associated with keeping dry?

What figure(s) has the name you think of when exiting or entering a room?

What figure has the same name as moving on tiny wheels or blades ?

Barefoot on the beach will make you think of this figure.

A toddler's nursery rhyme will tell them to clap hands

THE FINAL CHALLENGE!

What figure is the mirror image of a double reverse wing?

What figure with a rumba name, is not a rumba figure?

What bolero figures have the exact same footwork for the lady ?

Can you name five figures with the word quick in the name?

What figures have names related to water?

Do you want to stop now or go on to the Double or Nothing Bonus Question?

The Double or Nothing Bonus Question:

What rhythm(s) have not been included in this quiz?

SCORE _____ out of 130 potential points (That includes the double or nothing points earned)

Hope you have some fun. I am sure all you creative minds have come up with answers we have not considered. Thanks for playing.

Quiz Answers

Challenge One

Scissors or Chopper, Pretzle Turn, Lock or Door, Chair, Fan, Miami Special, Windmill, Chopper, Woodpecker, Diamond Turn, Hammerlock, Chicken Walks or Strut

Challenge Two

A Face to face or a Back to Back

Foxtrot, Tango and Samba –note the absence of Waltz

Curved Feather

Closed Dance Position (looking left over the man's right shoulder – not hanging on a clothesline)

Challenge Three

Three Step

Three Fallaways

Three Threes and Three Alemanas

Timing Challenge:

Cha Cha – Dance the first, second and last steps equally while the third beat is divided in half

Q,Q,Q^Q;Q^Q

Quickstep and Jive

The Beginning

Follow My Leader

All of the above

Name the figure challenge:

Cuddle

Cheerleader

Flea Hops

Lariat , Ropespin,

Dishrag

Quarter Turn or Quarter Beats

Umbrella Turn or Turkish Towel

All Doors including Sliding Door, Traveling Door or perhaps In and Out Runs (Get it – In & Out?)

Skate or Glide

Sand Step

Pattycake Taps

The Final Challenge:

Double Natural Spin

Rumba Cross

Open Break, Forward Break and Lunge Break

Quick Open Reverse, Quick Diamond Four, Quick Lock - Slow Lock, Six Quick Twinkle, Four Quick Run

Crab Walks, Fishtail, Whaletail, Serpiente, Scallop, Turkish Towel, Umbrella Turns

Bonus Question:

Paso Doble and Slow Two-Step