Presidents' Letter – Patrick and Eileen Krause

A great time was had by all dancers attending CRDA's annual Gala in Pueblo! All the dancers in attendance liked the facility and especially the floor. The featured cuers, Kristine & Bruce Nelson and TJ & Bruce Chadd, were outstanding! They taught four dances each, Phases 2 – 6. Rhythm and Figure clinics were taught by John & Karen Herr and Peter & Chama Gomez. We thank this year's General Chair, Gary and Charlotte Baxter, for a wonderful Gala! We would also like to thank all the committees and the CRDA member cuers for cueing the Friday afternoon and Saturday evening dances.

Elections for Board of Directors were held at the General Membership meeting. Thanks to our out-going directors: Mike and Betty Coan and Jim and Jane Wamboldt. We are also going off the board. Please join us in welcoming the in-coming directors: Kathi Gallagher, Pam King and Jim Steverson, and Steve and Janet Pitts. Continuing with the board are: Justin del Sol, Gary and Charlotte Baxter, John and Karen Herr, Frankie Travis and Ken Matuska, Kathryn Dow, and Jim and Margie Garcia. The officers for 2019 are: Presidents Steve and Janet Pitts, Vice-President Justin del Sol, Treasurers Frankie Travis and Ken Matuska, Secretaries Jim and Margie Garcia. The Board of Directors represents you. Please contact any Director with your ideas, questions, or concerns. All members are invited to attend Board of Directors meetings.

Remember your CRDA dues are due in January. Please encourage all your dancing friends to join CRDA! Membership includes discounts to CRDA dances, and the Round Notes newsletter which has local and national Round Dance information, and articles.

January's Fun Dance will be on Saturday, January 26th at the Rose Hill Grange (4001 E. 68th) in Commerce City. The time will be 7:00 – 9:30 p.m. with Harold & Meredith Sears and Roy & Marcia Knight cueing. The dance program will be Phase II – V, based on the dancers in attendance.

CRDA's website (www.crda.net) is a great source for all dancing! All CRDA's dances and locations are listed as well as non-CRDA dances. Check it out!

Weather Cancellation Policy: If a dance needs to be cancelled due to weather, an email will be sent on the day of the dance to the CRDA membership. It will be posted on CRDA's website and Facebook page.

We wish you a wonderful Holiday Season filled with family, friends, and dancing!

Editor's Note: CRDA thanks Patrick and Eileen Krause for their long-term service to CRDA and Round Dancing in Colorado. They have given much of their time and of their heart to an organization which means so much to so many. Thank you, Patrick and Eileen! See you on the dance floor!*

Incoming Presidents' Letter – Steve and Janet Pitts

We are looking forward to serving as your 2019 CRDA presidents. We appreciate your support as we learn how to lead this organization. We live in Lafayette and graduated from our first Round Dance lessons with Ed and Elvira Glenn in 2008. We are blessed with so many wonderful Round Dance instructors in the Denver area, which has allowed us to continue learning new things every year since then. We have served on the CRDA board in previous years as the Vice-Presidents and are returning to the board this year after a one-year break.

First, we would like to say THANK YOU to our CRDA outgoing presidents Patrick and Eileen Krause for all their efforts and time in serving as our Presidents during the last few years. Thank you as well to board members who are rotating off: Jim and Jane Wamboldt and Mike and Betty Coan.

Please join us in thanking and welcoming the new CRDA board members who stepped up to serve on the 2019 board: Pam King and Jim Steverson, and Kathi Gallagher. Round Notes will be publishing a complete list of CRDA Officers and Committee Members in an upcoming edition.

The FIRST 2019 Board of Director's (BOD) Meeting will be on Saturday, January 12th with snacks at 1:30p.m. and meeting starting at 2p.m. at the Rose Hill Grange. All CRDA members are welcome at any BOD meeting. See CRDA's website for current information on all CRDA's dances and events, www.crda.net

The 2018 Gala Chairs, Gary and Charlotte Baxter also deserve a big Thank You for putting on the well-organized and smooth-running Gala 2018 at CSU-Pueblo. Their efforts this year have helped find a wonderful facility, which ensures future Galas can continue to be a special event for CRDA. See the 2019 Gala article for information regarding next year's Gala, coming up in October 2019.

The FIRST CRDA FUN DANCE of 2019 is on Saturday, January 26, 2018 at the Rose Hill Grange (4001 E. 68th Ave in Commerce City) 7:00 – 9:30 p.m. The cuers are Harold & Meredith Sears and Roy & Marcia Knight. We hope to see you at our Fun Dances throughout the year. Please invite any of your non-CRDA Round Dancing friends to come to one of our Fun Dances!

There will be no Fun Dance in December (but there will be plenty of holiday-themed dancing to lighten the season). The first Fun Dance of the New Year is January 26th, with Roy & Marcia Knight and Harold & Meredith Sears. Why not suggest one or two of your very favorite dances to be cued that evening? Our cuers always try to pick dances they think will be fun, but so much better would be the dances that you know are fun. Go to www.crda.net and click on the Vote Link at the top of the page. It'll give you a nice feeling of power in these uncertain times.

ROUND DANCE TIP
by Tim Eum
Intro to Foxtrot

History:

In the summer of 1914, Ragtime music was all the rage in America. A vaudeville star named Harry Fox included dancing in his act, which featured fast moving, hoppy, “trotting” steps to the Ragtime music. The act became very popular, as well as the dancing, which became known as the “Fox Trot”.

Very soon afterwards – professional ballroom teachers such as Vernon and Irene Castle and G.K. Anderson and Josephine Bradley adopted the new “Fox Trot” although they made it more graceful, slower, and smoother. It was this ballroom version which we now generally call Foxtrot. Some aspects of the original fast, trotting style of dancing has still survived in what we now dance and call Quickstep. As a side note, Arthur Murray got his start in the dance business by printing the basic steps of Foxtrot and selling them for 10 cents each through the mail.

General Characteristics:

The Foxtrot is a smooth, progressive (i.e. moving) dance. There is rise-and-fall, but not as much as in Waltz – the emphasis is moving, not going up and down. As you become more familiar with Foxtrot, the figures you use have more passing steps in them rather than ending a figure with feet together (which is done often in waltz and other rhythms). The timing of many Foxtrot figures is generally SQQ, although SSQQ, SQ&Q, and even SQQ-QQQQ are also common. The rich variety of Foxtrot figures helps make it one of the most versatile of all the rhythms – although this also makes it a little more difficult to master. In any case, remember the originator, Harry Fox, danced with a care-free, entertaining, and joyous spirit --- and you can too.

Begin most Foxtrot figures by relaxing the knee of the leg you have your weight on (thus lowering) as you take the first step. Note how the heel of the foot taking that first step contacts the floor first. Such heel leads are common in Foxtrot. As you finish the first step you roll onto the ball of the foot and begin rising – but not as much as in waltz. You instead glide forward into the second and third steps of the figure thus progressing and moving smoothly across the dance floor.

Dancing is Good for Your Health. No Foolin'

by Sandi and Dan Finch

All that effort remembering dance steps could be your answer to slowing the signs of aging, more so than more traditional exercises. That's the conclusion of a 2017 study reported in the magazine "Frontiers in Human Neuroscience", which dancer/choreographer Steve Gibson ("Uptown Funk") shared. Researchers in Magdeburg, Germany, found dancing offers a one-two punch against aging. The process of dancing and remembering steps causes positive increases in areas of the brain responsible for cognitive function. Dancing also improves balance more than weight and endurance training, according to the magazine. The study worked with 26 healthy volunteers, average age of 65. One group was assigned to learn dance routines, the other to do endurance and strength training. After 18 months, both groups showed increases in the hippocampus region of the brain, an area which is important in memory and learning and often declines with age. But only the dancing group showed improvement in their balance.

This isn't the first study to verify that dancing is good for your health. A 2013 study, also reported in Frontiers magazine, studied two groups of volunteer elder adults for six months. One group participated in weekly one-hour dance classes, the other group did not. The dancers had higher scores for improved posture and better motor and cognitive performance scores than the other group. A 2015 study had a group of adults over 75 participate in 11 physical activities—such as swimming and golf—and six mental stimulation exercises—such as reading and playing board games. The result? Dancing was the activity most associated with the reduced risk of developing dementia. A 2014 study in Warsaw, Poland, concluded that dancers can get a runner's high from rhythmic movement, making dancing a less stressful form of mental escape than running.

Frontier magazine quoted a professor of neurology and medicine at Albert Einstein College of Medicine, who said dancing may be a key to preventing or delaying dementia because "dance is a complex activity that combines mental, physical, emotional and social aspects which together can be beneficial to your brain and overall health."

"Each year, one out of four adults 65 and older will fall", says a professor of dance physical therapy at New York University. "Techniques taught in dance increase body awareness, beneficial in reducing the risk of falls", she said. "Dance is just a series of balance tests." The next time your doctor is amazed at your fast recovery from surgery or your lab tests could be for someone half your age, show them this article. Dancing is good for your health. That's old news.

Gala 2018 Report
“WALTZING THROUGH AUTUMN LEAVES”

Wrap It Up and Move Forward

The wrap up meeting for our 2018 Gala, “Waltzing Through Autumn Leaves” brought enthusiasm for next year’s 2019 Gala, “Autumn Glow”. Your “Comments, Suggestions, Gripes, and Kudos” this year were appreciated. Thank You! Overall the new venue, received high marks! The Occhiato Ballroom is beautiful, and the floor and sound were exceptional.

The two guest curers were wonderful, and so much fun to be around. Both couples were talented cuers, teachers and choreographers. We would like to add that both couples brought their own original choreography to Colorado. What an honor that eight new dances were introduced at our 2018 Gala! Wow! You may download the cue sheets @ www.crdanet.net.

The Nelson’s brought:

Mystique (VI WZ); Tonight (IV RB); My Sweet Man (III JV); Complicated (II TS)

The Chadd’s brought:

Hey There (V FT); I Am Free (IV CH); Angel Waltz (III WZ); Aspenglow (II WZ);

At the meeting we decided programming could be tweaked a little. We thought Harold did an excellent job for a new venue with two halls rather than three. It’s a challenging job, and dancers need to remember your requests happen weeks before the Gala, during our on-line voting process! The list is comprehensive and easy to check off by level. Take advantage! Also, dancers expressed that a little more time for lunch and dinner would be appreciated, so expect a little more time next year. The buffet at the cafeteria wasn’t bad and reasonably priced at $8.88. Many dancers chose that option.

We especially want to thank the dancers who helped in so many ways on our committee, and to thank all the dancers who attended this year’s Gala. The decorations provided by Chama Gomez were beautiful. Thanks to our co-chair couple Janet and Steve Pitts, who are already working on next year’s Gala. We are looking forward to Occhiato Ballroom next October on the 11th and 12th. The flyer is already on the website www.crdanet.net. This dance is so special to our Round Dance community, and we look forward to it each year! Happy Dancing

Autumn Glow
Gala 2019

The planning for the 2019 Gala, Autumn Glow, has begun. We look forward to returning to the Occhiato Ballroom, CSU Pueblo on October 11th and 12th 2019. It is a wonderful facility with lots of room and excellent floor and acoustics. We are fortunate to have two excellent instructor couples again this year, Bill & Carol Goss and Randy & Rose Wulf.

We just finished reviewing the evaluations from this year’s Gala and are incorporating your comments. There will be plenty of dancing again this year, Friday afternoon through Saturday Evening, with Clinics, Teaches and Dancing for all levels. Watch for more details throughout the year as we finalize the planning.

It is not too early to register, if you haven’t done so already, and there is a discount for pre-registering before the Gala. You can download a registration form on the CRDA Website, http://www.crdanet.net/flyers/2019-10\_Gala.pdf and mail it to the Gala Registrar: Margie Garcia - 905 Mesa Ct., Broomfield, CO 80020.

Invite all your Round Dancing friends to join us for this special annual event.

How Ballroom and Latin Dancing Build Core Strength

reprinted with permission from:

Quick Quick Slow Ballroom Dance Studio

<https://www.quickquickslow.com>

The wide variety of ballroom and Latin dancing: Waltz, Foxtrot, Mambo, Cha-Cha, Rumba, Swing, Salsa, etc., showcases not only how the human body moves, but how dancing can command and reinforce strength. Ballroom and Latin dancing also promote longevity. When you look at the career span of a ballerina versus a ballroom dancer, the latter is significantly longer. In addition to enhanced posture and a full-body workout, dancing also promotes balance; something vital as people age. While many benefits of dancing, such as providing an emotional and mental release and improving social interactions are well-known, perhaps less-known is how dancing can strengthen the core and increase the many benefits associated with this strengthening.

The literature is rife with studies demonstrating that including core conditioning into dance training not only improves performance but also reduces injury risk. Once the student learns basic steps, patterns, movements, and dance holds, s/he begins to reap the cardiovascular benefits and improved muscle control, both of which contribute to core strength. From a cardiovascular perspective, for those who rely on pedometers to keep track of daily steps, the constant movement associated with dance can easily surpass 10,000 steps in a fun evening of dancing.

Perhaps the most important core-strengthening aspect of Ballroom and Latin dancing involves the muscle control and good posture required to dance with a partner. Whereas one may be doing a simple basic Foxtrot pattern or box step, it is much more than maneuvering through the patterns. Instead, every muscle in the body is manipulated to get the desired result. Further, these muscles are working significantly harder than would be the case if one were simply going on a walk. Additionally, maintaining a proper partnering frame also engages the core.

Another important factor is it's not simply the quick dances - Swing, Salsa, Samba, etc. that promote the most benefits. A perfectly danced Waltz or Foxtrot can be as advantageous as faster tempo dances. Further, these smoother, slower dances are more physically exhausting because of the muscle control necessary to ensure proper technique. This higher level of control is particularly beneficial for promoting greater core strength.

Treasurers Report: (Ken Matuska)

A Balance Sheet as of 9/30/18, an Income and Expense Summary as of 9/30/18 and a 2008-2018 Comparison Balance Sheet were submitted for review.

Presidents' Report: (Patrick and Eileen Krause)

Thank you to Gary and Charlotte Baxter for setting up Gala reservations in Pueblo and paying deposits for 2018, 2019, and 2020.

The old and new board members elect at Annual Meeting vote together to decide on officers for 2019. Group preference is to meet after afternoon teaches to do this. Also, because the cafeteria closes at 1:00 p.m., the Annual Meeting will be held after lunch beginning at 12:45.

Vice Presidents Report: (Larylee Hitchens for Justin del Sol)

Personal invitations were sent to Peter and Chama Gomez, Rob and Terri Sherwood, Mitchell and Chelsea Thompson, Becky and Dave Evans, Roy and Marcia Knight, Kathy Gallagher and Dave Smith asking them if they would accept a nomination to run for the CRDA board. Steve and Janet said yes. Kathi Gallagher said yes but needs transportation to attend meeting. Larylee Hitchens also indicated a willingness to serve. We will have three or four openings on the board.

2018 Gala: (Gary and Charlotte Baxter)

Last minute details were addressed and finalized. The 40 rooms which were blocked have all been booked for $65 per night. A few additional rooms are still available for $72 per night. Directional signs will be placed Friday (10/12) morning. The ballroom is available at noon on Friday for set up. Steve will check with Ed to see if we need more speakers. Steve will check on hearing assist. Terri Sherwood usually prints pocket programs. Please ask CSU Pueblo to set temperature of ballroom at 65 degrees. No one else is to touch it. One water bottle per dancer has been purchased. Please refill at water fountain. Transportation has been paid to guest cuers. Lunch is scheduled from 12 to 12:45 p.m. The Annual Meeting is scheduled from 12:45 to 1:45 p.m.

2019 Gala: (Steve and Janet Pitts)

The date is October 11th and 12th. The theme is Autumn Glow. The cuers are Bill and Carol Goss and Randy and Rose Wulf. The location is CSU Pueblo. The price remains the same. A $10 discount is given if you preregister at the 2018 Gala. A first time Gala attendee pays $80. Instead of having clinicians, it is suggested the guest cuers could include a preliminary clinic if it would be beneficial to their teach.

We do have room in the schedule to do a formal clinic if an unusual rhythm would require it. We will check the Baymont as a possible site for the 2019 host hotel when we get there this year. Judy Layberger will finish the flyer for Gala now that these details are finalized.

Cuer Amateur Night: (John and Karen Herr)

This is an important activity due to recent losses of cuers. Four individuals came and learned how to cue.

Attract and Retain Dancers Sub-Committee: (Mike and Betty Coan)

Betty presented a comprehensive marketing plan for 2019. Discussion followed. We can apply for marketing funds from the 53rd national Square Dance Association. Said application would need a definitive message about what we were attempting to do. One idea is to sync all advertising to beginner classes starting in September. We can put all information about beginner classes (and others) on the Dance Round Out Your Life website. We could use Google ads to access that site. We could update the current list of classes on our webpage. A motion was made that CRDA spend up to $300 to develop and print a class information pamphlet which would have to be reviewed by CRDA board and cuers and approved by the board before publication. Motion passed. Karen Herr volunteered to organize and coordinate this project.

Cuer Selection Committee: (John and Karen Herr)

For the 2020 Gala we must get a contract to the Rotscheids as soon as possible. Hopefully a second cuer might not be so expensive. A motion was made to accept Susie and Gert-Jan Rotscheid as one of two featured cuers for 2020. Motion passed.

Promotion/publicity: (Fred and Judy Layberger)

The 2018 Gala poster board and flyers have been circulated throughout Colorado, New Mexico, Washington State and Idaho plus at national and regional festivals. The 2019 Gala poster boards and flyers are almost finished and will be completed after this meeting. The 2019 Fun Dance flyers are finished except for July and cuer contracts have been sent out. Most of the Fun Dances will be at Rose Hill Grange and more dances are scheduled for Saturday evening next year.

Summer's End Dance: (Becky and David Evans)

No report by chair was submitted. There were four evaluations submitted. Overall response was favorable.

Fun Dances: (Frankie Travis and Ken Matuska)

The cost per couple for the Fun Dances is $15. New dancers could receive a discount coupon.

Round Notes: (Karen Herr)

The next edition should come out the first week of October. The Special Gala Round Notes Edition was well received, and Karen thinks she will continue this edition. We only publish 20 hard copies per month.

Membership: (Ron Blewitt)

106 members.

New Business:

The general membership meeting will be after lunch beginning at 12:45 p.m., at which time new board members will be elected. A picture of the 2018 and 2019 board members will be taken immediately after the meeting. Both old and new board members will elect new officers for 2019. Regarding the election of officers, it was suggested that a summary of each officer's duties from the by-laws would be helpful for candidates nominated for said offices. Such descriptions could be passed out at the time pictures are taken. Old and new board members will meet again after the afternoon teaches to elect new officers. The new President for 2019 will set the date for the first meeting in 2019.

Meeting adjourned

If you cannot attend a board meeting, please arrange for another CRDA member to be your proxy. That person or couple should NOT be another existing board member. Please let the president know if you will be unable to attend. Please bring two copies of all reports, one for the President and one for the Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
Margie Garcia

Colorado Round Dance Association
Annual General Meeting
October 13, 2019

President Patrick Krause called the Annual General Meeting to order. CRDA members were present along with the current CRDA board.

Secretary: (Jim and Margie Garcia)
Minutes approved as read.

Treasurer's Report: (Frankie Travis)
Balance Sheet as of September 30, 2018 shows total assets of $21,689.72. For specific information please contact Frankie.

Presidents Report: (Patrick and Eileen Krause)
Presidents thanked the 2018 dance chairs for the work they did this year (David Smith, David and Becky Evans, Gary and Charlotte Baxter, and Steve and Janet Pitts).

Presidents thanked outgoing board members Jim and Jane Wamboldt and Mike and Betty Coan. Patrick and Eileen are also outgoing board members and we thank them for their service for many years. They encouraged all Round Dancers to take advantage of the Colorado State Square and Round Dance Festival in June at the Pueblo Convention Center. The featured cuers/instructors for the festival are Mitchell and Chelsea Thompson.

They reported that in the past year, the CRDA board put focus on attracting new dancers and cuers to our activity. The board has sponsored and encouraged two cuer meetings – both with CRDA and non-CRDA cuers in attendance. The object was to get a dialog between cuers/instructors to help coordinate and spread out classes geographically and throughout the week. John and Karen Herr were the chairs of the cuer meetings. Also, John and Karen held a cuer instruction/amateur night to try to increase the number of cuers in Colorado. Just recently the board approved spending money to help with advertising of lessons and dances.

Election of Board Members:

There were four nominations for three positions: Pam King and Jim Steverson, Larylee Hitchens, Kathy Gallagher, and Steve and Janet Pitts. New board members are Pam King and Jim Steverson, Kathy Gallagher, and Steve and Janet Pitts.

2018 Gala Report: (Gary and Charlotte Baxter)

Everything is going great so far. Buffet lunch was well received and very convenient. Sound system working well. Please fill out an evaluation form. Please come and help clean up the decorations and load them in the truck. Don't forget the after party at the host hotel. And a very big thank you to everyone who helped put on the Gala this year! Bravo and way to go!!!

2019 Gala Report: (Steve and Janet Pitts)

Galas for 2019 and 2020 will be in Pueblo. The theme for 2019 is Autumn Glow. The guest cuers are Bill and Carol Goss and Randy and Rose Wulf. Co-Chairs are Steve and Janet Pitts and Jim and Margie Garcia. We still need one more assistant chair. The host hotel will be the Baymont Inn at the same price as this year, $65 and taxes per night. There is a discounted early registration fee of $90 per couple for people registering this weekend at the 2018 Gala. Thank you so much to the Missouri Round Dance Association who moved their Gala from October 11th and 12th to the last week in September to avoid a scheduling conflict.

Round Notes: (Karen Herr)

Please submit articles. We are encouraging membership from around the world.

Cuer Selection Committee: (Steve and Janet Pitts, John and Karen Herr, and Jim and Sharon Peyrouse)
Guest Cuers for 2019 are the Gosses and the Wulfs. For 2020, we have Rotscheids and are looking for one more cuer couple.

Hall of fame: (Jim Garcia)

We have no nominations currently. The Hall of Fame plaque is in the lobby.

Fun Dances: (Judy Layberger)

All flyers are prepared for next year. Most Fun Dances have been scheduled for Saturday night per dancer requests. All cuers are contracted. Thanks to existing cuers filling these slots. Please fill out surveys for Fun Dances.

Membership: (Ron Blewitt)

We have 106 members.

Colorado State Square Dance Association and Denver Area Square and Round Dance Council:
(representatives Jim and Judy Taylor)

The 2019 Colorado State Festival flyers are in lobby. The dance will be held in the Pueblo Convention Center and featured Cuers will be Mitchell and Chelsea Thompson.

The 2019 USA West Festival will be in Boise, Idaho and has a program comparable to the National Square and Round Dance Festival.

Promotion/Publicity: (Judy Layberger)

If you don't get reminders for all CRDA-sponsored dance events, please contact Judy. The Chadds and Wulfs took poster boards for the 2019 Gala to circulate in areas where they dance and teach.

Webpage: (Harold Sears)

Please tell Harold about non-CRDA events for posting on website. Videos from this Gala should be on website mid-November.

Historian: (Meredith Sears)

Albums and pictures of past years' CRDA are out on display in the lobby for your perusal.

New Business and comments from attendees:

Please write a letter to the Missouri Round Dance Association to thank them for moving their festival to the end of September.

A special thank you to Harold Sears for all the work he did on the dance program this year!

A special thank you to Peter and Chama Gomez for their triple duties for this year's Gala as host couple, decorations chairs, and clinic teachers!!! Way beyond the call of duty!

This earlier date works out much better for people coming from Grand Junction.

Justin del Sol's birthday is November 8th. Because he was unable to attend this year, he would appreciate hearing from you.

Meeting adjourned.

Election of Board Officers was held after the afternoon program on Saturday. New officers are: President - Steve and Janet Pitts, Vice President - Justin del Sol, Treasurer - Ken Matuska and Frankie Travis, and Secretary - Jim and Margie Garcia
